

A LARGE GEORGE II SILVER PUNCH BOWL

A large George II silver punch bowl

London, marks of Charles Martin, 1734.

Height 19 cm; diameter 39 cm, weight 1,778 g

Bulbous vessel with moulded rim on a round, tiered base. On the display side, the engraved coat of arms of the Rogers of Dowdeswell. Underneath the base, a dedication engraving: "The gift of John Rogers of Dowdeswell to Richd. Rogers his Nephew & Godson."

Pictures

Detailed Information

A large George II silver punch bowl