Detailed Description

Augsburg tumbler-cup

Silver, gilt. Conical beaker with a profiled lip rim on a slightly arched base. The wall is adorned with three finely engraved architectural reserves between fruit bunches and acanthus.

The engraved coat of arms belong to the barons v. Stoltzenberg.

tumbler-cup

The tumbler-cup or stand-up cup was developed in the 17th century because the vessel will straighten up by itself if you tilt it on its side and then let it go

Maker: Johann Amende, born 1647, died 1719
