

FINE KÖNIGSBERG COINTANKARD WITH LID

Object number :

City mark: Scheffler No. 57

Year letter N for 1701, see Scheffler East Prussia No. 79

MZ Daniel Ziegelmeister (1686 – before 1737, Scheffler East Prussia No. 57, 79, 2769),

Tremolier engraving.

Königsberg, Daniel Ziegelmeister, 1701.

H 19 cm, weight 1,465 g.

Lit

For the master, see also Czihak, Die Edelschmiedekunst früherer Zeiten in Preußen, Leipzig 1903, No. 186. There a baptismal jug by the master is mentioned in the Sackheim church.

Pictures

Detailed Description

Detailed information

Königsberg tankard with lid

Silver; gilt. The cylindrical body with a strong volute handle on a profiled base. The wall is decorated with 24 Braunschweig-Lüneburg Reichstaler, dated 1690 – 1697. In the lid and in the base there is a Saxon thaler with the bust of Elector Johann Georg I of Saxony, Jülich, Kleve and Berg, dated 1620 and 1624. The weight indication "Wigt 90 lott" is engraved under the base ring.